NAIDOC stands for National Aborigines and Islanders Day Observance Committee.

Its origins can be traced to the 1920's which sought to increase awareness in the wider community of the status and treatment of Indigenous Australians.

NAIDOC Week is held in the first full week of July. It is a time to celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history, culture and achievements and is an opportunity to recognise the contributions that Indigenous Australians make to our country and our society.

We encourage all Australians to participate in the celebrations and activities that take place across the nation during NAIDOC Week.

The Special Collection this week is for Catholic Mission in supporting women's and children's health throughout third world countries. Your donation will help bring down child mortality rates through better hygiene, nutrition and education. Thank you.
